

Originality of a problem's solution consists that the guide is the coeval of actors. Two Russian boys travel. As all ten years' children they are inquisitive, and just because of their indiscipline they don't know everything, that's why they get to funny situations. Russian boys like to travel. Their friend Peter Pan who has on a visit our friends, undertakes to teach them to travel by the magic way.

Which ten years' boy wouldn't like to visit Africa! That's why the first place of visiting they choose this continent and meet a local tribe. Natives are benevolently adjusted to young travelers. And Peter Pan tells about this continent, but without having a solid knowledge, confuses Africa to Antarctica. The leader of natives is revolted, it gives the order to eat uninvited visitors. The conflict is settled: boys give to natives a beads of the unusual beauty made of the rests of wall-paper, and the leader gives to children the textbook on natural study. The dance included in the form of style, helps to transfer intensity of a situation.

Travelers are carried away in Tridevyatoe kingdom, the state Tridesyatoe. Children are met by Vasilisa Premudraya and Vasilisa Prekrasnaya. They suggest them to have a rest after the journey and to try apples. But friends are already teadu to adventures! They are frightened that the apple suddenly revives and addresses to them with the request, to leave This Tridevyatoe kingdom as soon as possible.

The story of the guide about Russia shows the beauty and riches of the country, but there are problems in the big country. Security guards show that Russian language is in danger. To keep riches of the Russian language the security guard addresses to children: «not to be lazy, engaged, create, create, invent! And then there will be no borders, and children of the whole world without effort can travel, discover for themselves the new countries and continents, to come to each other on a visit, to be on friendly terms and create wonders!»

Song performance which has sounded at the end creates the kind spirit of all representation.
